Students are the movers of the Management and Technology to the higher levels. Our institution has set specific objectives and planned activities for achieving excellence in all spheres of Education. They should keep in mind the importance of Guru i.e. the teacher. They must learn to respect their teachers and have faith in them.

Sri.N.SATHISH REDDY Vice-Chairman

Sri.N.K.DEEPAK REDDY Secretary

"You don't have to be great to start, but you have to start to be great." People who feel good about themselves produce good results and people who produce good results feel good about themselves. My industrial exposure as a Group Leader gave me solid insights into intricate management perspectives, the traits, characteristics, behavioral and entrepreneurial skills required for a Management Student. At AGBS all students are well grounded in these aspects.

The society is promoted by a group of well known Industrialists, Businessmen, Professionals and Philanthropists with an aim to promote quality education in the field of Technology and Management. The students are trained in various aspects so that knowledge gained in the Academic Institute is fruitfully utilized. I am proud of the milestones achieved by the college within a short span of time and look at the future with optimism and confidence.

Dr.N.SUGUNA REDDY
Director

From the Principal's Desk:

The buggy horse has its eyes covered allowing it only to move in one direction, unless the cab driver pulls its head to a side to take a turn. The entrepreneurs cannot afford to be like the buggy horse. What I mean is that we should not restrict ourselves to learn just one branch of management. It is advantageous to have an idea of management issues to whatever branch it may belong. In other words, we must be Jacks of all spades and Master of some. This will help in arriving at the root cause of any management problem. Similarly, teachers should not restrict themselves to just teaching & their own professional growth. Conduct a workshop or a seminar. Confucius said that a journey of a thousand miles begins with the first step. So do take the first step today. Tell the students something more than your subject. Provide the students something more than the classroom experience. The teachers are the role model for their students by the way he/she conducts himself/herself in the college and outside.

- Dr. D. Astha Sharma

The Group of Frogs:

A group of frogs were traveling through the forest when two of them fell into a deep pit. When the other frogs saw how deep the pit was, they told the two frogs that there was no hope left for them.

However, the two frogs ignored their comrades and proceeded to try to jump out of the pit. However, despite their efforts, the group of frogs at the top of the pit was still saying that they should just give up as they'd never make it out.

Eventually, one of the frogs took heed of what the others were saying and he gave up, jumping even deeper to his death. The other frog continued to jump as hard as he could. Once again, the group of frogs yelled at him to stop the pain and to just die.

Contributed by: Mrs.D.Vijayalakshmi Assistant Professor

He ignored them, and jumped even harder and finally made it out. When he got out, the other frogs said, "Did you not hear us?"The frog explained to them that he was deaf, and that he thought they were encouraging him the entire time.

Moral of the story: People's words can have a huge effect on the lives of others. Therefore, you should think about what you're going to say before it comes out of your mouth – it might just be the difference between life and death.

It's Little Things that Make a Big Difference

There was a man taking a morning walk at the beach. He saw that along with the morning tide came hundreds of starfish and when the tide receded, they were left behind and with the morning sun rays and they would die. The tide was fresh and the starfish were alive. The man took a few steps, picked one and threw it into the water. He did that repeatedly. Right behind him there was another person who couldn't understand what this man was doing. He caught up with him and asked, "What are you doing? There are hundreds of starfish. How many can you help? What difference does it make?" This man did not reply, took two more steps, picked up another one, threw it into the water, and said, "It makes a difference to this one." What difference are we making? Big or small, it does not matter. If everyone made a small difference, we'd end up with a big difference, wouldn't we?

To be free is not merely to cast off one's chains, but to live in a way that respects and enhances the freedom of others – Nelson Mandela

To be free is not merely to cast off one's chains, but to live in a way that respects and enhances the freedom of others – Nelson Mandela

INSPIRING TEACHERS:

Swami Kamalananda and Swami Satyapriyananda of the Ramakrishna Mission have made available in book form what Swami Vivekananda (1863-1902) had said on teachers and students. The preceptor is the initial form; the disciple is the final form. The connection between them is of the form of Knowledge and this connection is forged by means of instruction. Teaching is not for barter, where the teacher gives the student some knowledge, in exchange for which he receives money. If such a crude contract exists, the teacher will regard the student only as a means of earning a livelihood, and teaching will just be a job. The student will have no respect for the teacher. It is important to instruct no doubt, but what is far more important is to inspire. A teacher should be able to communicate the joy and excitement of learning something new. There are several cases of students who have decided to study a particular subject, or specialize in it because the person who taught the subject could convey to his student some of the excitement and life of subject itself.
