Constitution Day (Samvidhan Diwas) Celebrations

(Reading the Preamble of the Constitution)

Venue: Seminar Hall, Ramanujan Bhavan – Aditya University Surampalem.
26th – November – 2025

Aditya Degree and P G College NSS Unit 1 Student Volunteers and a few Staff successfully took part in Constitution Day (Samvidhan Diwas) Celebrations on 26th November 2025. This Celebration was conducted in accordance with the Circular Dated: 22/11/2025, ANUR/NSS/2025/13 issued under the guidelines by Ministry of Education & the NSS Regional Directorate. On this special occasion the NSS Student Volunteers and all other students of the college and Staff Members along with the Principal Mr. Vilas Anil Chavan sir of Aditya Degree and PG College took active participation in bringing back to memory the great history and sacrifice which went into the formulation of the Preamble of our Constitution.

The NSS Programme Officer Mr. B K Vidyasagar got the needed permission from the Principal and the Higher Officials of the Aditya University to conduct this programme. All the required logistics and arrangements were taken care of the previous day by the NSS Programme Officer and Student Volunteers. In the morning session after the college assembly, The Preamble of the Constitution was repeated loudly by all the students, with the NSS Programme Officer reading it in the mike for all those gathered. After this in the afternoon session the students and staff of this NSS Unit - 1 gathered in the Seminar Hall of Ramanujan Building and organized an reawakening programme on The Importance of our Constitution to educate the young minds and staff about the importance, still relevance and functioning of our Constitution in the present times and ever evolving social scenario. The Guest Speaker for this Seminar was Ms. Santhi Anusha.

The Constitution provided a framework for government's powers and duties, the fundamental rights of citizens and directives of our states policies. The Seminar also provided all those gathered with insights into the various minds of great political stalwarts who were instrumental in framing our constitution into what it is at present. And those great leaders we shall always be indebted. The participants gained a better understanding of the History and deep gems of wisdom and knowledge contained in the lines of our Constitution. This seminar gave the participants a brief glimpse and insights into the aspects of how laws are made and are to be implemented, how the judiciary is formed and the rights and privileges, powers and frame of authority of the elected body of representatives. Our Chief Guest for the celebrations very meaningfully elaborated the reason behind the choosing of the phrase Samvidhan Diwas and its significance and incorporation into our Constitution. Students' role in following and adherence to the clauses implanted in the Constitution was very well explained by the speaker for the day. The reason behind why we are celebrating this important day was highlighted through this seminar.

83 students from the School of Sciences, Dept. of Forensic Sciences participated and took active part in the Constitution Day (Samvidhan Diwas) Celebrations, accompanied by the College NSS Unit – 1 Programme Officer (PO), Sri. B K Vidyasagar Asst Prof Dept. of English. The technical aspects of the seminar were taken care of by Mr. K C Thusar Asst Prof, Dept. of Cyber Security. The session was highly interactive, with students clarifying their doubts and posting queries to the guest who presented the seminar. All students gained valuable insights and clear understanding of the background history and formulation of the Constitution. The programme aimed to empower students with knowledge, encourage patriotism towards our country and society, and spread awareness about the importance and necessity to lead our lives according to the laws enshrined in our Constitution.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, by Mr B K Vidyasagar NSS Programme Officer acknowledging the valuable contribution of the Guest Speaker Ms. Santhi Anusha and the active participation of all the students and staff gathered for the day's celebrations. The NSS Unit reaffirmed its commitment to organizing more of such impactful awareness programmes for the holistic development and well-being of the student community.
