

Report on "Pravesh 2k24" – Freshers' Day Celebration

Department: Forensic Science, Aditya Degree and PG College, Surampalem

Date: 01st September 2024

Venue: ACET Seminar Hall

The Department of Forensic Science at Aditya Degree and PG College, Surampalem, celebrated its annual Freshers' Day event, "Pravesh 2k24," on 1st September 2024. This event, which has become a cherished tradition, serves as an official welcome for the new batch of students into the department. The day was filled with a mix of formal addresses, cultural performances, and engaging competitions, making it a memorable occasion for all attendees.

Morning Session

The program began promptly in the morning with a Welcome Address that set the stage for the day's activities. The host welcomed the dignitaries, faculty members, and the fresh batch of students, expressing the department's delight in welcoming the newcomers. The freshers were encouraged to embrace the opportunities and challenges that lay ahead in their academic journey.

Following the welcome address, the stage was set for the Inaugural Address by Mr. Vilas Anil Chavan, the esteemed Principal of Aditya Degree and PG College. In his speech, Mr. Chavan emphasized the significance of this new chapter in the students' lives. He spoke about the values of discipline, hard work, and integrity, which are essential for success in both academics and life. His address was both inspiring and insightful, leaving the students motivated to excel in their chosen field.

The event continued with a speech by the Vice-Principal, Mr. Nageswara Rao, who further encouraged the freshers to take full advantage of the resources available at the college. He highlighted the importance of participating in extracurricular activities and maintaining a balance between academic and personal life. His words resonated with the students, providing them with a roadmap to navigate their college years success.

Cultural Performances

The formal addresses were followed by a series of cultural performances that showcased the diverse talents of the students. The cultural segment began with a Duet Classical Dance Performance. The dancers, dressed in traditional attire, moved gracefully to the rhythm of classical music, captivating the audience with their synchronized steps and expressive gestures. The performance was a beautiful blend of tradition and art, reflecting the rich cultural heritage of India.

Next on the agenda were the Solo Singing Performances, where talented singers from the department took the stage. Their melodious voices filled the hall, creating an atmosphere of harmony and joy. The audience was treated to a mix of classical, contemporary, and folk songs, each performance highlighting the singer's unique style and skill.

The event also featured various Dance Performances that added vibrancy and energy to the proceedings. The dancers, with their lively moves and expressive choreography, brought a festive spirit to the event. The performances ranged from classical dances to modern fusion, showcasing the versatility of the students.

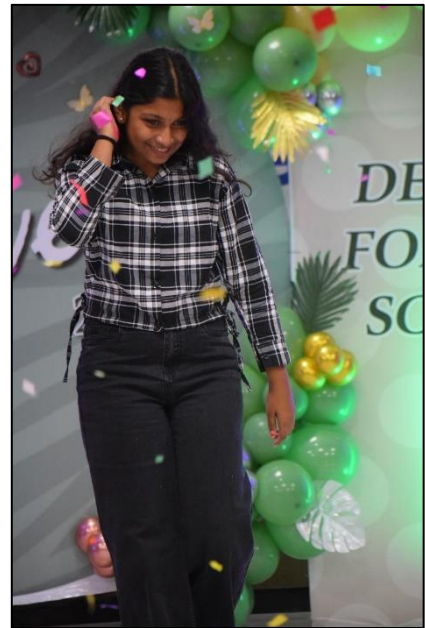

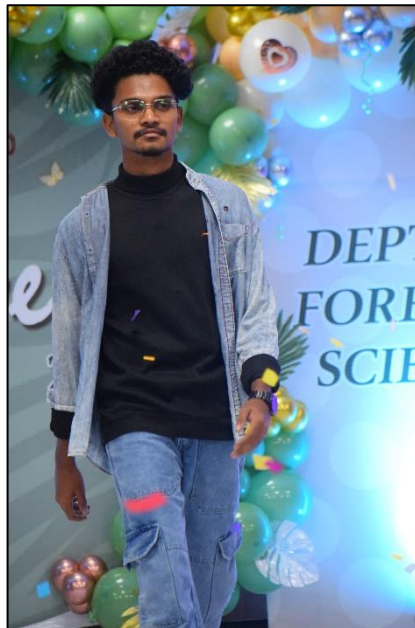

One of the most impactful performances of the morning was a Musical Skit themed on women's safety. The skit, which combined acting, music, and dance, addressed the critical issue of women's safety in society. Through a compelling narrative, the performers highlighted the importance of awareness, self-defense, and community support in ensuring the safety of women. The skit was not only entertaining but also thought-provoking, leaving a lasting impression on the audience.

Mr. and Ms. Fresher Competition – Round 1

The morning session reached its peak with the Mr. and Ms. Fresher Competition. This competition, eagerly awaited by the freshers, is a platform for them to showcase their confidence, personality, and talent. The first round of the competition was a Ramp Walk, where the contestants walked the stage, displaying their poise, style, and charisma. The ramp walk was a glamorous affair, with each contestant receiving enthusiastic cheers from the audience.

The conclusion of the ramp walk marked the end of the morning session. The freshers, faculty, and guests then gathered for a Photo Session, capturing the memorable moments of the event. The photo session was followed by a lunch break, where everyone enjoyed a delicious meal and had the opportunity to socialize and relax.

Afternoon Session

After the lunch break, the afternoon session resumed with more cultural performances. The stage was once again alive with Dance and Singing Performances, each more impressive than the last. The performers kept the audience entertained with their energy, creativity, and passion for the arts.

The Mr. and Ms. Fresher Competition continued with the Talent Round. In this round, the contestants had the chance to showcase their unique talents, be it in music, dance, acting, or any other skill. The talent round was a display of creativity and ingenuity, with each contestant bringing something different to the stage. The audience was thoroughly entertained, and the judges faced the challenging task of evaluating the diverse range of talents presented.

The final round of the competition was the Question-and-Answer Round. In this round, the contestants were asked a series of questions designed to test their intelligence, wit, and presence of mind. The questions covered a wide range of topics, from current affairs to personal aspirations. The contestants responded with confidence and clarity, impressing both the judges and the audience.

Prize Distribution and Conclusion

The event concluded with the Prize Distribution Ceremony. The winners of the various sports events held earlier were awarded trophies and certificates, recognizing their achievements and hard work. The climax of the day was the announcement of the Mr. and Ms. Fresher titles. The winners, chosen based on their performance in all the rounds, were crowned amidst applause and cheers from their fellow students.

The day's events concluded with the National Anthem at 4 PM, bringing to a close a day filled with celebration, creativity, and camaraderie. "Pravesh 2k24" was not just an event but an experience that left the freshers feeling welcomed, valued, and excited about the journey ahead. The event was a resounding success, reflecting the department's commitment to fostering a supportive and vibrant academic community.
